

‘ALALĀ

(ah-lah-laah)

The ‘Alalā is the native crow of Hawai‘i.

Maka'iwa
KEIKITM
Coloring Page

www.makaiwakeiki.com
youtube.com/makaiwakeiki

‘Alalā are very smart. They are known to even use sticks as tools to extract food from logs.

#MK-0012 Page 1 of 4
©Maka'iwa Inc. 2016

'I'IWI
(ee • ee-vee)

Maka'iwa
KEIKITM
Coloring Page

www.makaiwakeiki.com
youtube.com/makaiwakeiki

The Scarlet Honeycreeper is one of the most recognized Hawaiian forest birds.

The curved bill of the 'I'iwi is used to extract nectar from the flowers of the upper rainforests.

#MK-0012 Page 2 of 4
©Maka'iwa Inc. 2016

KOLOA

(koh-loh-uh)

The Koloa is the native duck of Hawai'i.

Maka'iwa
KEIKITM
Coloring Page

www.makaiwakeiki.com
youtube.com/makaiwakeiki

Koloa are known to travel in pairs rather than large groups.

#MK-0012 Page 3 of 4
©Maka'iwa Inc. 2016

NĒNĒ

(neh-neh)

Maka'iwa KEIKI[™] Coloring Page

www.makaiwakeiki.com
youtube.com/makaiwakeiki

The proud Nēnē is the native goose of Hawai'i.

The feet of the Nēnē have less webbing than other geese, making it easier for them to travel on land.

#MK-0012 Page 4 of 4
©Maka'iwa Inc. 2016