

Rock Your Moccas

Nov 8 –15, 2015 is Rock Your Moccas Week!

The Aboriginal Family Literacy Circle would like to challenge your organization to encourage those who self identify as being First Nations, Metis or Inuit to Rock their Moccas. This challenge is to bring an awareness, to embrace our culture, to feel safe as we self identify and hold our culture and traditions dear to us (even if we weren't raised this way)

One day or all week, wear your moccasins!

Take a group/individual photo and share on the "Aboriginal Family Literacy Circle" Facebook Page, with your agency name
