

Chesapeake Bay Awareness Week on the Banks of the Middle River

Emmett Hanger, Virginia Senator, and Jeanne Hoffman, ninth-generation farmer, invite you for a walk along the Middle River to see how streamside buffers improve the working landscape

Tuesday, June 4, 10:00–Noon

Jeanne Hoffman's Farm
Intersection of Trimbles Mill Road and Boy Scout Lane
Swoope, Virginia

Speakers include:

Jeanne Hoffman, farmer
Ann Swanson, Chesapeake Bay Commission
The Honorable Emmett Hanger, Senate of Virginia
Amy Johnson, Virginia Working Landscapes
Patty Nylander, Virginia Department of Forestry
John Dawes, Chesapeake Commons
Representatives from the Friends of the Middle River and Headwaters Soil and Water Conservation District

Registration is capped at 75 attendees.

Please RSVP to Elizabeth Ronston at eronston@cbf.org or 804-258-1862.

*The fourth annual Chesapeake Bay Awareness Week is being held June 1 to 8, 2019.
The legislatures of Virginia, Maryland, and Pennsylvania established Chesapeake Bay Awareness Week to encourage citizens, localities, and organizations to hold events to educate, inspire, and increase enthusiasm and support among all residents of the watershed for restoring the Bay.*

