

5 Writer Must Haves

1. Type of book – idea on either fiction (fantasy, drama, mystery) or nonfiction, (about you or real-life event) or about your dreams, goals or desires of a business you're interested in starting.
2. Space to write – the space does not have to be big, must be comfortable.
3. Resources – must have pens, paper, dictionary, thesaurus, memo cards.
4. Outline – a breakdown of how you will present your story or information to your audience.
5. Storage – either a computer or notepad to begin your writing journey.

This list sounds simple, but it is effective in getting the book started. The best time to start is Now!