I'm blessed to have these recipes and to have them in my Nanny's writing.

It was an all day event, making corn soup with her. Enough to feed an army, or whoever stopped by. It's one of my best memories of her, and I have a lot.

Here is one of her recipes that I made not long ago, for Dried Corn Soup. She does leave some things to the imagination, but when you've done something repeatedly, over and over....it was difficult for her to write it down. Luckily I was able to fill in the blanks.

Lyed Corn Soup

You make lyed corn soup the same way.
Cook 1½ beans to a pack of lyed corn and any kind of pork.
Pork hocks, side pork, pork chops are all good to use
