Opening

exhibition with over 40 artist

May 11 from 4 to 11 p.m.

No Borders Art Festival acknowledges we are on occupied unceded and unsurrendered Anishnaabe-Aki territory

We believe that the process of decolonization and liberation of knowledge must be a collective action based on respect and solidarity.

We call on people from different disciplines, backgrounds, ages, sex/gender identities, ethnicities, abilities, incomes, nationhood, and nationalities to come together in celebrating and bridging our communities with the first No Borders Art Festival.
